

- Do you want to develop your skills as a professional coach?
- Are you looking to gain a coaching qualification that will help your future career?
- Are you interested in networking with other professionals who work as internal or external coaches?
- Are you required to provide a high-quality in-house coaching service within your organisation?

The Programme will enable participants to:

- Understand and apply a wide range of coaching and mentoring theories and models
- Develop effective coaching contracts and clear coaching boundaries Develop good practice in formal and informal coaching
- Plan, organise and evaluate workplace coaching sessions
- Adapt their personal coaching style to meet the needs of their coachees
- Evaluate the effectiveness of their company coaching programmes

PROGRAMME OUTLINE

The ILM Level 5 Coaching Certificate Open Programme takes approximately nine months to complete. It includes the following elements:

- A blend of face to face and virtual workshops
- Group and individual supervision sessions which focus on reflective practice, review and observed coaching practice
- The chance to learn from different highly experienced coaches during the programme
- A group size of 6 – 10 enabling personal attention
- A personal tutor who will support you with your assignments and provide email and phone support throughout
- A 360° feedback report, to provide you with detailed feedback on the effectiveness of your coaching
- Access to Represent's dedicated ILM Dropbox containing resources to support each assignment

Costs:

£3,500 per person, + VAT

Payable 6 weeks before programme begins. A £1000 deposit is required to confirm booking.

Location:

London / Southern region / Virtual

Dates:

Please contact us to discuss our 2023 dates!

For further information please contact:
rosemary@represent.co.uk